Update on ITT: Week ITT Closed

- Sept. 6 - ITT announces it is closing all 130+ campuses in 38 states
- Sept. 8 – CHE receives update on ITT and other for-profit institutions
- Sept. 9 – Gov. Pence, Lt. Gov. Holcomb, and Indiana VA Director Brown write U.S. DVA Secretary McDonald asking that veterans be fully reimbursed for using their GI Bill benefits to attend ITT

Update on ITT: U.S. Representative Messer's Bill

- U.S. Representative Luke Messer has introduced H.R. 6003 that would allow veterans to recover their G.I. Bill benefits if a school they attended closes
- H.R. 6003 would apply to 7,000 veterans nationwide who were enrolled at ITT Tech at the time it closed

Update on ITT:

Student Loan Discharge Options 1

- Students may be eligible to have their federal loans discharged 100% if:
 - The school closes while they were enrolled and they can't complete the program because of the closure
 - The school closes within 120 days after they withdrew

Update on ITT:

Student Loan Discharge Options 2

- Students may not be eligible to have their federal loans discharged if:
 - They withdrew more than 120 days before the school closed
 - They're completing a comparable program at another institution through a teach-out agreement with another school or by transferring credits to another school

Update on ITT: Students Continuing Their Studies 1

- A press conference was held on Sept. 13 with five institutions expressing willingness to work with ITT students and subsequently holding student fairs:
 - Harrison College
 - Indiana Wesleyan University
 - Ivy Tech Community College
 - Oakland City University
 - WGU Indiana

Update on ITT: Students Continuing Their Studies 2

- A survey of 22 public and private Indiana institutions indicated varying options for former ITT students:
 - Transferring course-to-course equivalencies
 - CLEP exams
 - Departmental exams
 - PLA/portfolio exams
 - Industry certifications

Update on ITT: ITT Enters Chapter 7 Bankruptcy

- Sept 16 – ITT files for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy
- Deborah J. Caruso of Rubin and Levin, PC is appointed Chapter 7 Trustee and seeks to halt law suites and seizure of corporate records and other property while she takes stock of all assets and liabilities

Update on ITT: Student Records

- Sept. 2 – ITT and Parchment sign contract to allow students to access their transcripts
- To date, Parchment has received requests for transcripts from 575 former ITT students in Indiana; approximately 2/3 of these requests have been fulfilled
- The Commission has received the roster file of all former ITT students in Indiana since 2001

Update on Other For-Profit Institutions: Recognition of Accrediting Body Withdrawn

- Sept. 22 – U.S. Department of Education Senior Department Official concurs with DOE staff and NACIQI to no longer recognize the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools (ACICS), affecting nine Indiana institutions
- ACICS has appealed this decision and is awaiting a final decision from the U.S. Secretary of Education
